

Canadian Kilties

Songs

WORDS & MUSIC BY

J. Benison Rainsford

LOUIS H. ROSS
MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
214 THURMONT ST.
BOSTON

PUT ON YOUR UNIFORM OF BLUE For Your Country's Calling You

Words by MARY BURNS BAHR

Music by CHARLES WILLIAM BAHR

Moderato e marziale

When the war broke out in Here in France we are and nine-teen four-teen that aw-ful year a-broad We hoped and prayed that Un-cle Sam, would all a-round us we hear the din of war As flags fly high and bands blaze forth, we nev-er have to go But, my son, it seems as though we would have to go my march as in days of yore For our duty to France we nev-er for-get and hope that anx-ious moth-er cried score And if we go I hope and pray you'll do your share or die.

this will set-tle the score And while I sit where camp fires glow I hear my moth-er soft-ly say.

cresc. riten. riten. riten.

mf CHORUS marziale cresc.

Put on your u - ni - form of blue For your country's calling you To the Old Red, White and Blue Tho' I dread to see you go But your cour-age you must show And al - ways be a man There are tear drops in my eyes As the boys go marching by But I want you to be there with the rest And I pray you may come back, Tho' your part must nev-er slack Till all the world's at peace peace

1 D. S. last time

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO
Take Me
Back To Old New Brunswick

Words and Music by
J. B. RAINSFORD

INTRO.
 Marcia

PIANO mf

Moderato (Till ready)

VOICE mf

To -

1

night my thoughts are turn-ing Back to my dear old home To the know you're wait-ing for me In the cot-tage by the way And your wild - woods of New Brun-swick Where my sweet heart and I did roam The thoughts are e - ver long - ing to have me home to stay Just

Copyright 1916 in U. S. and Canada by J. B. Rainsford
 International Copyright Secured

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES